

Network Meeting in Uppsala 20-21 April, 2015

Antibiotic resistance; a One Health perspective

Day 1 20 April
09.30-10.30	Registration, poster mounting and sandwich/coffee Venue: Universitetshuset sal IV, Biskopsgatan 3, Uppsala
10.30-11.00	Introduction of the National Doctoral Program (NDPIA) Åke Forsberg, MIMS/Umeå University Anna Holmström, MIMS/Umeå University
11.00-12.45	Participant/project presentations 2 min PowerPoint presentations by all NDPIA participants
12.45- 13.45	Lunch
13.45-14.30	One World – One Health Björn Olsen, Uppsala University
14.30- 15.15	Low levels of antibiotics and heavy metals promote evolution of high-level resistance Dan Andersson, Uppsala University
15.15-15.45	Coffee
15.45-16.20	Veterinary medicine and the use of antibiotics in agriculture Björn Bengtsson, National Veterinary Institute
16.20-17.00	Antibiotic resistance and globalization Thomas Tängdén, Uppsala University
17.00-18.30	Poster session (+ snacks)
18.30-	Dinner (in the basement of the meeting venue)
Day 2 21 April
08.30-09.15	The ecology/epizootology of antibiotic resistance; the role of wild life Jonas Bonnedahl, Linnaeus University
09.15-10.00	Hospital ecology of bacteria Åsa Melhus, Uppsala University
10.00-10.30	Coffee
10.30-12.00	The increasing lack of effective antibiotics globally: its health and economic consequences in high, middle and low income countries Otto Cars, Uppsala University
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-14.30	Discussion of future networking and activities Åke Forsberg, MIMS/Umeå University
14.30-15.00	Summary, poster award and closing of the meeting Åke Forsberg, MIMS/Umeå University

Links to additional presentations will be included as soon as possible